

Worried about an HMRC enquiry?

Relax, we've got you covered

Why do I need the fee protection service?

- HMRC enquiry activity is at record levels
- HMRC are targeted to increase tax revenues
- HMRC has been granted wider information and inspection powers under 'Schedule 36'
- Anyone that pays tax can come under enquiry
- Many enquiries on businesses or individual taxpayers are selected completely at random
- Even if your tax return and business records are accurate and the taxman finds no errors enquiry fees can still be significant
- No policy excess
- No nonsense policy allowing us to deal with all enquiry correspondence from HMRC as well as attending meetings with HMRC where necessary
- Complete peace of mind

What is the fee protection service?

- Farrar Smith will assist you, should you receive an enquiry from HMRC... Professional defence costs are often substantial
- These costs will be covered by our policy
- Includes cover for enquiries under HMRC's 'Schedule 36' powers
- Includes complimentary access to Employment Law and Health & Safety advice lines

What is not covered by the service?

- Routine compliance work, eg. preparing your tax return
- Any tax, interest or penalties due
- Criminal prosecutions and fraud
- Enquiries commenced prior to subscribing to the service

How do I join?

Please call us on 0113 230 5510 to find out what the cost would be for you or your business

Farrar Smith

Chartered Accountants